

Magic Phrases

v1.0.1

If you believe something hard enough, it affects reality. That's magic thinking. Well, suppose a genie would let you choose some actual magic phrases. What would you choose? And how would you use them?

Choose 1, 2 or 3 phrases, and one meaning for each of those phrases. You can choose the same phrase twice to get two meanings, or thrice to get three meanings.

If you only choose 1 power, you can use it once per minute. If you choose 2, you can use one of them once per hour. If you choose 3, you can use one of them once per day.

The target must hear you and understand English. Mental changes on others dissipate over time, typically a year. Physical changes (either on you or others) are permanent unless noted otherwise. You can target yourself if you look into a mirror and the power's description does not rule this out.

As you need to believe in what you're saying for the magic to work, you can't choose two contradictory meanings, such as Every Woman is a Queen (Prejudice) and Feminism is Dead (Prejudice).

All Women Are Sluts

- Prejudice: The target will now treat all women as promiscuous sluts. Their exact behavior depends on their views toward sluts, which the phrase doesn't change. If the target is herself a woman, she'll only treat other women as sluts, not herself.
- Desire: The target will now view slutiness as a major green flag for women, and prudishness as a major red flag. It only affects people attracted to women.
- Behavior: The targeted woman becomes a slut. If straight or lesbian, she becomes bi-curious. She will place no limits on her pursuit for sex, including fidelity, damage to reputation, or moderate risk. Any sexual encounter will be accepted a priori, unless the person is known as a bad fuck.

Bigger Is Better

- Self: Either your dick or your boobs get significantly bigger, growing by at least 10% in total volume. There is no upper limit on repeated uses, but diminishing returns once you hit what is considered human maximum.
- Dicks: The target's penis gets bigger, as above. You can't use this version on yourself. This does not affect targets without an existing penis.

- Boobs: The target's breasts get bigger, as above. You can't use this version on yourself. This does not affect targets without existing breasts, however flat.
- Desire: The target now prioritizes size over most other criteria when selecting mates, to the point of reevaluating his/her existing relationship(s). The target still follows his/her orientation, so a straight female will look for a big dick, while a lesbian will prefer large boobs. Bisexual are affected both ways.

Clothes Make the Man

- Self: Your current attire is transformed into whatever you wish, no matter how outlandish. Only men's clothing can be created, and they change back 8 hours later.
- Illusion: Any male disguise works perfectly. A simple badge and people will treat you as a cop. Dress as Superman and people will think you're a super-powered kryptonian. Wear a mask of your president's face and you get to sign laws.
- Genderswap: If the target is a woman wearing men's clothing, she turns into a man. Her new appearance is somewhat influenced by the nature of the clothes. The change is permanent.
- Desire: The target is aroused by well-groomed, well-dressed men. The richest and latest fashion the better. It only affects people attracted to men.

Dresses Make the Woman

- Self: Your current attire is transformed into whatever you wish, no matter how outlandish. Only women's dresses can be created, and they change back 8 hours later.
- Illusion: Any female disguise works perfectly. Carry a broom and people will treat you as a witch. Dress as Wonder Woman and people will think you're really a super-powered amazon. If your president is a woman, you could pass as her with a simple mask.
- Genderswap: If the target is a man wearing women's clothing, he turns into a woman. His new appearance is somewhat influenced by the nature of the dress. The change is permanent.
- Desire: The target is aroused by well-groomed, well-dressed women. The richest and latest fashion the better. It only affects people attracted to women.

Every Woman is a Queen

- Prejudice: The target will now treat all men as inferior to women. Only works on women.
- Behavior: The target will now treat all women as superior to men. Only works on men.
- Orientation: Turns the target straight if male, or lesbian if female. Note that a bisexual will lose interest in the other sex.

Feminism is Dead

- Prejudice: The target will now treat all women as inferior to men. Only works on men.
- Behavior: The target will now treat all men as superior to women. Only works on women.

- Orientation: Turns the target gay if male, or straight if female. Note that a bisexual will lose interest in the other sex.

Gentlemen Prefer Bimbos

- Behavior: The target wants to change herself into a bimbo. She's going to dye her hair, get a tan, get breast implants, etc. Works only on females.
- Reverse: If the target is a woman, she'll only be attracted by older and richer men.
- Desire: The target is only attracted by bimbos. If his current partner doesn't fit, he will leave her. Only works on non-gay males.

Happy Spouse, Happy House

- Behavior: The target will do everything to make his wife or husband happy. They'll endure anything as long as their spouse is content. Only works on married persons.
- Desire: The target will seek out a potential traditional wife or husband. Any trace of autonomy and independent thought becomes a red flag for him. Only works on unmarried persons.
- Compulsion: The target becomes a perfect traditional husband or wife, following the values of American 50's. A husband will try to earn money for the whole house, and take up drinking and smoking. A wife will stop working and stay at home to cook and raise children. If unmarried, they'll seek out a classical spouse.

I Can Do This All Day

- Physical: All forms of fatigue and minor injuries disappear, leaving you fit for physical work. This does not suppress long-term illness or severe wounds like lost members.
- Mental: All forms of stress and headache disappear, leaving you fresh for intellectual work. This does not suppress long-term mental states, like depression or paranoia.
- Sexual: If you have a penis, it gets hard again and your sperm reserves refills. If you have a vagina, it gets wet again and all chaffing is healed. If you somehow have both, you get the two effects.

Join my Band

- Self: You master an artistic skill, such as singing, dancing or playing the guitar. You can only master one skill at a time this way.
- Literal: The target will accept to join your musical band for at least one recording session or concert.
- Compulsion: If you had consensual sex with the target in the last 24h, they will agree to join your personal harem. The agreement is not unconditional. The target expects a non-exclusive, but loving relationship.

Kiss me, lover

- Behavior: The target will French kiss you passionately, though it won't change their feelings for you.
- Sexual: If you have a vagina, the target will gladly perform oral sex on you. It works even if the target is not normally attracted to your gender.
- Compulsion: The target falls in love with you. Only works if you are compatible with the target's orientation.

Looks are Important

- Self: You become 10% closer to the perfect you. A sex change takes 30 uses.
- Others: The target becomes 10% more beautiful, according to your personal ideals of their gender. They will also change their clothing style to match your preferences. This never includes a sex change.
- Behavior: The target will become obsessed with their looks, spending more time and money on make-up, fitness coaches, surgeries, etc.
- Desire: The target will only choose romantic and sexual partners that are exceptionally beautiful.

Memory is a Tricky Thing

- Self: For the next hour, you remember perfectly the events of any given day. You can choose a specific date or a condition, like the day you met someone for the first time.
- Others: The target forgets the events of the last 8 hours. They will think they followed their usual routine.
- Illusion: The target accepts the next thing you say about his/her past as the truth. He/she will contort his other memories to suit the new one. Wildly improbable lies may cause the target to resist the power.

Nothing's Taboo Anymore

- Self: You can either suppress one of your existing fetishes or gain a new one. This is permanent.
- Orientation: The target moves one step closer to pure bisexuality on the Kinsely scale.
- Compulsion: The target tells you about their darkest fantasy. If they have only tame fantasies, the target receives a random one and tells you about it, thinking they had it all along. If you're willing, the target may be persuaded to fulfill their fantasy with you. If the target was speaking to someone else when you used the power on them, they will tell their fantasy to this person instead.
- Normalization: Targets won't react to your sexual activities, acting as if nudity or sex in public was perfectly normal. They won't join you, but couples may have sex together too. This last 8 hours.

Obedience is Bliss

- Self: You get aroused and feel pleasure when obeying orders. The more intimate and humiliating the commands, the greater the pleasure.
- Behaviour: The target gets sexual pleasure from obeying your orders, as above. This does not otherwise alter their willingness to obey you.
- Self-Reversed: You get aroused and feel pleasure when people obey your orders. The more intimate and humiliating the commands, the greater the pleasure.
- Behaviour-Reversed: The target gets sexual pleasure when people obey their orders, as above.
- Compulsion: The target gives their partner full control over their sexuality. Their obedience is not absolute, and may be limited by personality, outside factors, etc. They'll try to follow orders, and accept a punishment if they can't or won't do what their partner wants.

Pleasure is its Own Reward

- Self: Whenever your target has an orgasm, you have one too.
- Other: Whenever you have an orgasm, your target has one too.
- Sexual: A part of the target's body becomes as sensible and pleasurable as a clitoris.
- Compulsion: When making love, your target won't come before you do.
- Desire: The target will do its best to please you. This only includes sex if you're already in a relationship. Otherwise, they'll help you as close friends would.

Quality trumps Quantity

- Self: The longer your next orgasm takes to come, the more powerful it'll be. Choose the factor when you utter the phrase (twice longer for twice stronger, etc.)
- Other: The longer you fuck your partner before they come, the stronger their orgasm will be, as above.
- Desire: If the target is in a relationship, they will never cheat on their partner.
- Desire-reversed: If single or non-exclusive, the target will try to prove your saying wrong by having as many casual encounters as possible over the next few days.
- Physical: Two or more identical items are merged into a single object of greater quality and value.

Riches Come to the Lucky

- Self: You somehow gain the equivalent of a full week of wages, either by winning the lottery, finding a wallet or the bank making an error in your favor. If you're unemployed, you gain one week of rent money instead.
- Others: If the target owes you any money, or feels they owe you for any reason, you can convert the debt into sexual favor. They won't be shocked by the proposal, but may refuse if they are faithful to another partner or not attracted to your gender.

Sucking Dicks is Addictive

- Self: Your next ejaculation produces a highly addictive form of cum. It quickly loses potency if not swallowed immediately.
- Sexual: If you have a penis, the target will gladly perform oral sex on you. It works even if the target is not normally attracted to your gender.
- Behaviour: The target would rather suck dicks than having regular sex. This does not mean they will suck you over anyone else. This only works on targets attracted to males.
- Compulsion: The target turns into a willing sex slave. They'll try to follow your orders, and accept a punishment if they can't or won't do what you want.

This is a Free Party From Now On

- Literal: You get into any party or club without paying. You don't pay at restaurants or bars, or for travel by plane or taxi. This won't work at shops, alas.
- Compulsive: The party you're attending turns into an orgy. People will spontaneously remove their clothes and sexual proposals will mostly be accepted.

- Desire: If the target is in a relationship with you, they'll give you universal and preemptive consent for any sex act. You have free use of their body. They get less pleasure from sex if you ask for consent anyway.

Undies are Unnecessary

- Compulsion: The target will gladly remove any panties, bras, boxers, even in public, though discreetly, and eventually their clothes in private. They don't need to be your lover to be affected.
- Desire: The target prefers partners who go commando. If in a relationship, they will ask their partner to stop weary undies.

Variety is the Spice of Life

- Self: Your appearance changes randomly, including sex, height, weight, hair color, ethnicity, etc. You have no control over the result, but can try again when your phrase is available again. You can also use this power to regain your original appearance. Otherwise, this effect is permanent. You can't target anybody else with this power.
- Other: The target's appearance changes randomly, as above. This lasts 8 hours. You can't target yourself with this power.
- Cospay: The target's clothes change for either a sexy costume, or a character you like. This lasts 8 hours for someone else. For you, it's permanent, until you use the power again to change your clothes back.
- Genderswap: If the target is willing, they turn into the opposite sex. Their orientation is unchanged, although they may be persuaded to experiment. This lasts 8 hours for someone else. For you, it's permanent, until you use the power again to change your gender back.
- Sexualswap: If the target is willing, their sex changes. A penis becomes a vagina, and vice-versa. This lasts 8 hours for someone else. For you, it's permanent, until you use the power again to change your sex back.
- Intersexuality: If the target is willing, their sex changes to include both a penis and a vagina, but no balls nor clit. This lasts 8 hours for someone else. For you, it's permanent, until you use the power again to change your sex back.
- Objectification: If the target is willing, it becomes a living sex doll for 8 hours. They can't speak during this time. You can't target yourself with this power.

Will you be my lover?

- Summon: Name any celebrity or person whose real name you know and isn't from your family. You will have a meet-cute with them during the week. You have a real chance of seducing them, if you try your best.
- Status: Look the target in the eyes. You'll know their attraction level and eventual feelings toward you, as if playing a dating sim.
- Divination: As you look at the target, you'll know the best way to act to improve their attitude toward you.

X is Mainstream Now

- Self: Any porn video you star in will perform very well, gathering ten times as much viewers and earning ten times the usual amount.

- Others: If the target already wants to have sex with you, they'll agree to get filmed too.
- Sexual: While having sex with the target, if they won't do a sexual act, you can argue you've seen porn of it, and they'll agree to try it.
- Desire: The target will prefer having sex while filmed. Non-filmed sex will be half as pleasurable.
- Luck: Using this phrase before any party or night in town ensures you'll meet a cute and willing partner for casual sex.

You'd Make a Wonderful Mom

- Self: If you have a penis, you lose your balls and gain a vagina and fully-functional uterus instead. If you already have a vagina and uterus, your fertility is triple normal, ignoring all contraception (except condoms and abstinence) and even menopause. If you're already pregnant, the pregnancy moves forward by a few days.
- Others: The target is affected as above.
- Compulsion: If the target has a vagina and a uterus, she will enter heat and do anything to get pregnant as quickly as possible. Other targets are not affected.
- Desire: If the target is pregnant, they will become highly desirable to any man hearing you.

Zero Fucks Given

- Self: You forget about your worries.
- Compulsion: The target forgives you for any perceived wrongdoing, including cheating.
- Desire: The target will stop desiring their partner and refuse to have sex with them. They will instead develop a cuckold fetish, with you as their partner's lover. The phrase does not influence the partner at all...
